*"Ms. Faass' services were invaluable in developing the proposal for my professional book.
The book was purchased for a substantial amount by our first-choice publisher."*

J. Michael Menke, MA, PhD(c), University of Arizona

"The Writers' Group helped me sell my book—they wrote the proposal after brainstorming with me for several hours. Although I am a writer, I didn't have the time to learn the proposal process—especially since we needed to turn it around in a short time frame. Even if you have a mostly-finished manuscript, you need a great proposal to sell it for you."
